Summarize Emma's experience abroad

- She visited Reutlingen in 2007
- Her first experience had to do with drinking sparkling water instead of still water which is common in Germany
- Architecture in Germany is different compared to the UK - houses have basements
- Germans watch little TV only in the evening
- German schools are very clean
- Improved her language skills in everyday life
- Germans don't wear school uniform - she liked that
- German students have more freedom than UK students
- Germans are very good at English
- „Freibäder“ were a highlight

Compare Emma's description of German school life with your experience of school.

Summarize Peter's experience abroad, p. 118

- Spent a year in Kansas, America
- He stays with a host family, he likes his host family a lot
- Enjoys doing sports in America that are not big sports in Germany
- Tries to improve his English and get rid of his accent
- Learns a lot about morals and humour, general differences between American and German everyday life
- Becomes more open minded and broadens his horizon

Analyze Peter's text against the background of the graph.

Being in another country may change your knowledge about the host country and your competence in the target language.

Explain these changes with regard to the texts.
